

All India Food Processors' Association in association with Assocom – India and with the support of Union Ministry of Food Processing Industries and India Trade Promotion Organization organized a National Seminar on “Ready to Eat Foods” on November 15 – 16, 2007 at Conference Hall No. 8, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi.

On the Dias (L – R): Mr. N.M. Kejriwal (Past President - AIFPA) Mr. C.K. Basu (Vice President – AIFPA), Mr. P.I. Suvrathan, IAS (Secretary – Ministry of Food Processing Industries), Mr. P.L. Kaul (President – AIFPA)

The Seminar had six Sessions:

Technical Session I - Emerging Snacks and Ethnic Foods

Technical Session II – Ready to Serve (RTS) Beverages

Technical Session III - New Products Development

Technical Session IV - Fortification of RTE Foods in Nutrition and Health

Technical Session V - Export Opportunities for RTE Foods

Technical Session VI – Role of GMP / GHP, HACCP in Quality Control and Food Safety

The Seminar was attended by around 200 participants which included students, faculties, Industrialists, professionals and bureaucrats.

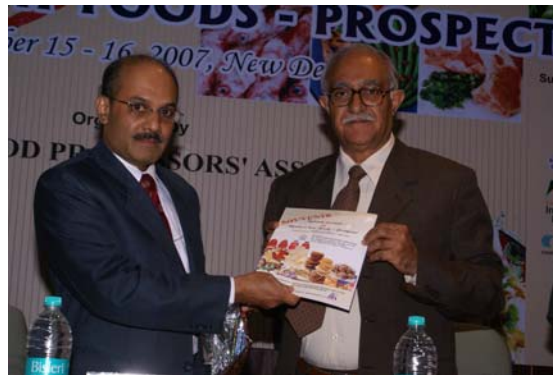

View of Participants

View of Participants

A Souvenir was released at the time of the Seminar by Mr. P.I. Suvrathan, Secretary, Ministry of Food Processing Industries.

Mr. P.I. Suvrathan, Secretary, MOFPI alongwith Mr. P.L. Kaul, President, AIFPA

During the Seminar there was an Exhibition where Food Processing and Ready to Eat Food companies put their stalls in Hall No. 7 ABC. The exhibition is also in conjunction with India International Trade Fair, 2007.

The event was managed by Assocom – India.